Rules of Decorum: In order to conduct City business in an orderly fashion, and to properly discharge its duty, the City Council must hear in many instances a variety of differing viewpoints. To obtain all relevant information from differing viewpoints, rules of decorum are necessary. Thus, the City Council adopted the following rules to assist in the orderly deliberation of matter affecting the City and its citizens.

(a) The session shall begin with an invocation followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

(b) No Council Member, staff person, or member of the audience shall berate, embarrass, accuse, or show any personal disrespect for any member of the staff, Council Members, or the public at any Council meeting.

(c) While the City Council is in session there shall be no smoking of cigarettes, pipes or cigars; no consumption of any kind by the audience; no propping of feet on tables or chairs; no loud noises, talking, shouting, etc.; no loud demonstrating for or against the Council or any speaker, issue, or presentation; no applause, booing, hissing, foot stomping, parading, singing, or other disruptive inappropriate behavior.

(d) Demonstrations shall not be permitted while the City Council is in session, including marches, chanting, picketing, any other coercive, argumentative, political, and/or disruptive behavior of any kind.

(e) In addressing the City Council, members of the audience shall rise, go to the podium, and remain standing while addressing the Council. They shall remain at the podium and speak into the microphone for the recording of the proceedings and begin by giving their full name and address. Citizens shall not approach the City Council table except with permission or request of the Mayor or City Council.

(These rules are not meant to restrain a citizen's first amendment rights.)

CITY COUNCIL EXECUTIVE SESSION

Notice is hereby given on this 18th day of May 2018 that the governing body of the City of Robstown, Texas will hold a Regular Meeting on Monday, May 21, 2018 at 6:30 pm, City Hall Chambers, 101 East Main Street, Robstown, Texas. The subjects to be discussed are listed on the agenda, which is attached to and made a part of this Notice.

If, during the course of the meeting covered by this notice the Governing Body of the City of Robstown should determine that a closed meeting or executive session is required for private consultation with the attorney for the authority with respect to matters where such attorney's duty of the City Council clearly conflicts with the provisions of the Open Meeting Act, as authorized by Section 551.071, Government Code, V.T.C.S., then such closed meeting or executive session will be held by the Council at the date, hour, and place given in this notice, or soon after the commencement of the Regular/Special or /Workshop meeting covered by this notice.

Should any final action, decision, or vote be required with regard to any matter discussed in such meeting, or executive session, then such final action, decision, or vote shall be made at the open meeting covered by this notice upon reconvening of this public meeting, but only as to the items appearing on this agenda for such action.

Texas Government Code Section:
551.071	Consultation with Attorney and Section
551.072	Deliberation Regarding Real Property
551.087	Discussing economic development negotiations
551.074	Personnel Matters

Should any final action, final decision, or final vote be required in the opinion of the City Council with regard to any matter considered in such closed or executive meeting or session, then the final action, final decision, or final vote shall be either:

(a) In the open meeting covered by the Notice upon the reconvening of the public meeting; or

(b) At a subsequent public meeting of City Council upon notice thereof; as City Council shall determine

On this 18th day of May 2018 an original copy was posted on the window of Robstown City Hall, 101 East Main Street at 5:00 p.m. on said date.

Herman Rodriguez, City Secretary
